LOCAL NEWS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES .- War Depart ment Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Wash ington, D. C., February 9, 1876—10:30 a. m. For the Middle States, falling barometer, southerly to easterly winds, veering to westerly, warmer, cloudy and rainy weather.

HYMENEAL.-The wedding of Mr. A. Leo MeGraw, formerly of this city, but now of the Treasury Department, Washington, and Miss Estelle Steele, of Georgetown, both of whom are well and favorably known in the social cireles of the District, took place at St. Patrick's Church yesterday afternoon, in the presence of numerous admiring friends. The marriage ceremony was read by Rev. Father Keane, and Messrs. William S. Crews, James Harvey, Frank Tibbets, William Somerville, E B. Hay and Edward Smart acted as ushers. The fair bride was becomingly attired in a seal brown silk of a delicate shade, and wore a plum colored hat with velvet trimmings. A quiet recep-tion was held at the residence of Mr. McGraw, No. 920 Tenth street, in the evening until 9 o'clock, at which time the newly mated couple took the train for a bridal tour among the northern cities.

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases have been tried since last report:

Henry Lincoln, Anthony Grant and Walter Fauntleroy, alias Welch, all colored, for stealing three pieces of meat from Henry Callan, were sent to the chain gang for 30 days.

John Bright and James Grimes, for being disorderly, were fined, and, in default of payment, sent to the chain gang. John Colson, alias Mumps, colored, for being disorderly around the station house, was released on promise to go to a fishing shore with Capt. Robb. Six lodgers at the station house last night.

BURGLARY .- The residence of Capt. P. B Hooe, corner of Prince and Washington streets, was entered by thieves last night and robbed of property amounting to about $150. The robbers effected an entrance by forcing up a window opening from the pautry upon a side yard, and from thence went through the house. Among the articles taken were an overcoat, hat, valuable meerschaum pipe, sleeve button, and a small sum of money. The thieves ran-sacked several drawers, but, strange to say, left behind them a solid silver sugar urn and waiter. No trace of the thieves could be discovered.

THE FOWLE-STEVENS AFFAIR.—The City Sergeant this morning received a writ from George T. Turner, clerk of the special committee of the House of Delegates, requiring him to summon "Alexander Hunter and Thomas Beckman' to appear before the committee on the 11th instant, at 4 o'clock p. m., "to give evidence in the matter of controversy between Wm. H. Fowle and Judge Geo. S. Stevens.' Mr. Hunter was not found by the Sergeant and no such person as "Thomas Beckman' being known in this city, the writ will be re-

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 9.- In the Senate, to-day, a bill was passed making an appropriation of $25,000 for continuing the work upon the Capitol grounds.

A resolution was agreed to directing the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds to report some plan for the early completion of the Washington Monument, in the city of Washington.

The House Centennial appropriation bill was

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The morning hour in the House of Representatives was nearly consumed by a bill authorizing the sale of the interest of the United States in eight acres of land near Vincences, Indiana. The bill was finally lost-yeas 119,

The House then went into Committee of the Whole and took up the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation bill.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, addressed the House at length on general politics.

The Fowle-Stevens Investigation.

RICHMOND, VA., Feb. 9.-The Special Committee of the House, Mr. Massey chairman, charged with the investigation of the conduct of Judge George Stevens, of Nelson county, in connection with the loss of certain funds by Mr. Fowle, of Alexandria, met last night in one of the basement rooms of the Capitol. Judge Stevens and Mr. Fowle were present, and the latter underwent a long examination. It appeared, from Mr. Fowle's testimony, that he commenced drinking on the first of January. On Saturday and Sunday he went to Worsham's, and there met with Judge Stevens. For two days he was playing with Stevens and Geo. Hill, of Worsham's establishment, and his losses amounted to $15,000 in District of Columbia bonds, worth $8,000, and a considerable amount of money derived from checks drawn by Fowle on the Richmond and Alexandria banks, and cashed by Worsham. About half of these funds have been returned. Before Mr. Fowle's testimony was concluded Maj. T. A. Brander, to whom Hunter turned over, as a friend, six of the 500-dollar bonds obtained from Stevens, was allowed to give in his brief deposition. The Committee will meet again to-day at ten o'clock, when Mr. Fowle will again be put upon the stand. The reporters are not allowed by the Committee to publish the testimony as taken down by their clerk. Messrs. Hunter and Beckham have not responded to the summons of the Committee. Process against them has been issued. Hill, the gambler, is in Washington, and out of the jurisdiction of Judge Guigon and the Committee.

Foreign News.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—The Times' Paris special To the City Council of Alexandria: says: A comparison of the official text of Count published by the Cologne Gazette shows only a few verbal differences.

SHANGHAE, Feb. 9.—Nothing has transpired here explaining the recent dispatches that five war vessels had been ordered to Chinese waters frem Bombay.

LONDON, Feb. 9 .- In his speech in the House of Commons, last evening, Mr. Disraeli made the following important announcement: Before we agreed to support the Austrian note it had been intimated to us in an unmistakable manner that it was the Port's desire, however much it objected to the note, that England should not stand aloof.

LONDON, Feb. 9.- The walking match between Edward Payson Weston and the English champion, Perkins, commenced last evening at 9 o'clock. The match was for a fifty pound cup for the greatest distance in twentyfour hours, Weston fixing his limit for 115 miles. Perkins gave out at noon to-day, after walking 65 miles. Weston is still walking.
